1. Receipt is acknowledged of the response filed on 7/21/2003.
2. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).
3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 1-5 and 7-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Mathews et al in view of Dickhart III et al.

Note the previous discussions in paragraph 5 of paper number 4, mailed 5-20-2002, and paragraph 3 of paper number 12, mailed 4-24-2003.

Note that while the legs shown in Dickhart extend at 90° from the donut section, these legs are flexible and will move between an angle of less than to greater than 90° in use and with continued wear. Applicants have not specified an amount over 90°. Thus, any variation of slightly over 90° meets this limitation. As to the base, the base in Dickhart constitutes both the end portion and connecting donut-shaped ring. The prongs are at an over periphery of the ring.

5. Applicant's arguments filed 8/21/2003 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Contrary to applicants' contention, Dickhart does show the recited features as discussed above in paragraph 4. In addition, the inclusion of convolutions in the donut shaped ring of Dickhart is not precluded by applicants' claim. Likewise, an additional spring in Dickhart is not precluded by applicant's claims. As to a suggestion, Dickhart shows a damper for a spring and a person of ordinary skill in the art would utilize this teaching if a damper for a spring was desired for numerous reasons, such as reducing noise.

6. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.

7. Any inquiry concerning this communication should be directed to Mr. Graham at telephone number (703) 308-1113.
